Youth Week, May 1-7

Taran Kingsbury led members of the Youth Committee in discussion to solidify activities and volunteers for this week.

Framework:

Sunday, May 1

Unable to host a booth at the Langley Community Walk. Instead will plan to lay out long pieces of parchment paper on tables, sheltered by tents at May 7 Multi Cultural Fair. Each parchment strip to have theme as determined by a word in different language written on the paper. Attendees invited to draw or add to the parchment paper using supplied charcoal or black paint.

Tuesday, May 3

Host a Multi Cultural Game at Timm's Community Centre, 4:00pm-6:00pm. Cane Ball.

Volunteer(s) for this activity: Lucy Ruhl and Sydney Swain

Wednesday, May 4

Tasting Kitchen at Timm's Community Centre. Host a bannock making demonstration and layout a smorgasbord of multicultural dishes (e.g. poutine, fettucine, perogy casserole, sushi, Thai, Indian, Mexican, Persian).

Taran is actively onboarding restaurants/organizations for this activity.

Volunteer(s) for this activity: River Peatman

Thursday, May 5

Art Gallery at Timm's Community Centre in Games Room or Council Chambers, 6:00pm-9:00pm.
