Celebrating Arts and Culture in Langley City

The Celebrating Arts and Culture in Langley City event will be from January 18 to January 31 and will bring together the Art Walk and the Multicultural event that was planned. This event also allows the business community to partner with the artists.

The event will have two components:

- Businesses can display art in their windows and/or
- Artists can provide their own submission that will be a part of a virtual showcase that will be shown on the Langley City website.

Submitted art can be cultural dress, drama, artworks, recipes etc. Letters to businesses will be delivered and a social media campaign will be launched. Additionally, a scavenger hunt will be available to garner more interest and involvement.
