

EMERGENCY SUPPORT SERVICES (ESS) VOLUNTEER RESPONDER APPLICATION

Langley City’s Emergency Program ESS volunteers are dedicated to creating a stronger, more resilient community by helping citizens prepare for, respond to, and recover from emergency events.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Emergency Support Services: assist Langley City residents and others impacted by an emergency event.

Public Education: support the City’s emergency preparedness public education initiatives.

Personal Disaster Assistance: assist in providing individual care to evacuees.

Emergency Communications Services: test emergency equipment ahead of a real emergency event.

To volunteer, you must meet the following requirements:

- Be over the age of 19 years;
- Hold a Class 5 Driver’s License;
- Provide a Police Information Check through the Langley RCMP;
- Be in good physical and mental health: our volunteers are considered “first responders” who need to be fit for duty;
- Can effectively communicate written and orally with City staff and the public;
- Be comfortable using digital devices (i.e. radios, tablets, laptops);
- Can be available 24 hours/7 days a week, on short notice;

As an ESS volunteer, you are required to adhere to the following rules:

- Maintain complete confidentiality of all personal information that is collected, used, and disclosed during any involvement with Langley City’s Emergency Program;
- Take part in education, exercises, training, and operational opportunities, in accordance with the City’s Emergency Program policies and procedures;
- Complete all mandatory training and maintain a level of competence to ensure response readiness;
- Obey all traffic and other by/laws when responding for and on duty;
- Avoid representing yourself as an agent of the City of Langley, Langley City Fire-Rescue Service, or the Province of British Columbia;
- Avoid communicating with media outlets (including posting activation details on any social media platform);
- Avoid reporting for duty while under the influence of alcohol or drugs;
- Avoid misrepresenting yourself, your training, or skills to any organization or individual.
